Continue on as is, with a possible 3 men &amp; 3 women team. This may have the effect of some players missing out and a reduced level of competition. </li> <li>2. Create a ‘Social night’ individual competition where players would play for points throughout the season (similar to ladies day comp) For this to be able to work successfully however, it would require a Program that could be run where players would be matched according to their skill level </li> <li>3. Discuss with SABA the possibility of running a doubles competition involving SABA players and which would be run by SABA and not the BVASA.</li> </ul> </li> </ul> <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• It was agreed that the committee will attempt to put together enough teams to commence the new season on 9th January.</li> <li>• It was also agreed that both other options should be explored further, with Allen contacting Simon Oaten to gauge any interest, if any from SABA in running a doubles competition.</li> </ul>	Wendy Debbie John Match committee Allen John Allen

- We will also attempt to find any suitable programs that would facilitate running a social night easier
- It was further agreed that the committee will conduct a survey of its members to gauge opinions for the 3 options or any other suggestions. Allen to put together a survey and present to the committee before the next general meeting
